

The use of cell phones on board US aircraft in flight is the worst idea I have ever heard. I am a flight attendant, and I have enough trouble now getting the attention of the passengers. If they are on the phone, they will never hear me or pay attention to me. I am most concerned about safety announcements, potential emergency situations. Please do not allow this usage. Thank You.